

THE ACLS CENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN
CONFIDENTIAL INTENTION FORM

Dear Donor,

We realize that many people who plan to support the American Council of Learned Societies through their estate and/or financial plans prefer to keep their intentions private. However, by letting us know of your plans, we can thank you during your life, and confirm that we are able to fulfill your stated intentions.

Please know that completing this form is non-binding – we understand that you may change your plans at any time. Please also know that all information you share with us is kept strictly confidential.

THE 1919 SOCIETY

To recognize those who have invested in ACLS and have realized the important legacy a planned gift creates, ACLS has established The 1919 Society. Named for the year of our founding, The 1919 Society acknowledges forward-thinking benefactors who partner with ACLS to help keep the humanities vital and relevant for future generations.

Everyone who has notified ACLS of an estate intention is recognized as a member of The 1919 Society.

YOUR GIFT INTENTION

Please provide the following information and attach a copy of the documentation or appropriate language from your will or trust, if available. Please complete all that apply.

- I/We want to support the mission of the American Council of Learned Societies through a planned gift as described below:
